

"When commerce is influenced by art there is diversity and freedom and creativity. When art is ruled by commerce everything becomes the same." DO NOT relax rules about broadcast ownership! You will stifle freedom and turn America into George Orwell's 1984 nightmare. Please protect us from "Big Brother"; do NOT let a few big media companies control our lives via the air waves; keep them open for a the varied voices of our society!